Briggs Widens Lead, Salo in Top Three

Ballerup, Denmark, May 18, 2013—Spectators wouldn't know Sam Briggs had a debilitating knee injury last year after her performance thus far at the Europe Regional. The British powerhouse continued widening her lead, with her closest competitor 14 points behind. Meanwhile previous CrossFit Games champion Mikko Salo has his work cut out for him as the competition has gotten more fierce since his injury last year, and Team Reebok CrossFit Nordic remains in the top three.

All told, individuals completed two workouts on the second of the three-day event, as did teams.

For the individual athletes, the day kicked off with a long workout: 100 wall balls at 14 lbs. for women and 20 lbs. for men to a 10-foot target, 100 chest-to-bar pull-ups, 100 one-legged alternating squats and 100 one-armed dumbbell snatches at 70 lbs. for men and 50 lbs. for women. The second and final event of the day was 21, 15 and then 9 repetitions of deadlifts at 205 lbs. for women and 315 lbs. for men, with box jumps at 24 inches for women and 30 inches for men.

For the teams, the morning started in a similar fashion with some twists. Each member of the six-person squad had to complete 30 wall balls, 30 chest-to-bar pull-ups, 30 one-legged alternating squats and 30 one-armed dumbbell snatches. The second team event also mimicked the individual workout except one man on the team completed 21, 15 and then 9 reps of deadlifts and box jumps, then a woman followed suit.

At the end of the day, the overall standings were as follows:

Men

1. Lacey Kovacs (20 points)
2. Mikko Salo (27 points)
3. Frederik Aegidius (43 points)

Women

1. Samantha Briggs (9 points)
2. Caroline Fryklund (23 points)
3. Katrin Tanja Davidsdottir (34 points)

Teams

1. Thor (14 points)
2. Team Reebok CrossFit Nordic (16 points)
3. CrossFit Bath (20 points)
