Smith, Kittelberger, RAW Training at Top Spots

Landover, Md., June 7, 2013—Totaling seven points, 23-year-old Ben Smith leads after the first day of competition at the Mid Atlantic Regional. And Gretchen Kittelberger, a former gymnast and two-times CrossFit Games competitor, sits at No. 1 among the women. Meanwhile, Pennsylvania's RAW Training is first among the teams.

All told, individuals completed three workouts on the first of the three-day event, as did teams.

For the individual athletes, the events included CrossFit classic Jackie, comprising a 1000-meter row, 50 45-lbs. thrusters and 30 pull-ups. Both men and women completed the event with a 45-lbs. barbell. Then it was on to a 7-minute ladder of overhead squats. After a 2-minute break, the day ended with 30 burpee muscle-ups for time.

For the teams, the morning also started with Jackie, except they worked in pairs of one man and one woman; both sexes used the same barbell. Squads then had 7 minutes to establish a three-rep max overhead squat. The women took it on first while the men completed as many burpee muscle-ups as possible in 7 minutes. The sexes switched after a 2-minute rest period.

At the end of the day, the overall standings were as follows:

Men

2. Jordan Troyan (17 points)
3. Kyle Ruth (19 points)

Women
