Kasperbauer in 4th Place, Cordner Carson, QCCF in 1st

Chicago, Ill., May 31, 2013—Last year's third-fittest man, Kyle Kasperbauer, sits outside of the top three by five points after the first day at the North Central Regional. In the women's competition, familiar names occupy the top spots, with 2012 Spirit of the Games Award winner Deborah Cordner Carson in first. Among the teams, QCCF – Live Uncommon sits in the top spot.

All told, individuals completed three workouts on the first of the three-day event, as did teams.

For the individual athletes, the events included CrossFit classic Jackie, comprising a 1000-meter row, 50 45-lbs. thrusters and 30 pull-ups. Both men and women completed the event with a 45-lbs. barbell. Then it was on to a 7-minute ladder of overhead squats. After a 2-minute break, the day ended with 30 burpee muscle-ups for time.

For the teams, the morning also started with Jackie, except they worked in pairs of one man and one woman; both sexes used the same barbell. Squads then had 7 minutes to establish a three-rep max overhead squat. The women took it on first while the men completed as many burpee muscle-ups as possible in 7 minutes. The sexes switched after a 2-minute rest period.

At the end of the day, the overall standings were as follows:

Men

1. Brandon Pastorek (14 points)
2. Justin Allen (19 points)
3. Jared Stevens (20 points)

Women

1. Deborah Cordner Carson (6 points)
2. Stacie Tovar (9 points)
3. Elisabeth Akinwale (13 points)
