Khalipa Dominates at NorCal

Santa Rosa, Calif., May 25, 2013—Never finishing lower than second place in any of the five events thus far, Jason Khalipa sits atop the leaderboard at the Northern California Regional. The 2008 CrossFit Games champion has created a 15-point gap between him and training partner Neal Maddox, who sits in second place after two days of competition. Meanwhile, Alessandra Pichelli is at the No. 1 spot among the women and CrossFit 808 is first in the team competition.

All told, individuals completed two events on the second of the three-day competition, as did teams.

For the individual athletes, the day kicked off with a long event: 100 wall balls at 14 lbs. for women and 20 lbs. for men to a 10-foot target, 100 chest-to-bar pull-ups, 100 one-legged alternating squats and 100 one-armed dumbbell snatches at 70 lbs. for men and 50 lbs. for women. The second and final event of the day was 21, 15 and then 9 repetitions of deadlifts at 205 lbs. for women and 315 lbs. for men, with box jumps at 24 inches for women and 30 inches for men.

For the teams, the morning started in a similar fashion with some twists. Each member of the six-person squad had to complete 30 wall balls, 30 chest-to-bar pull-ups, 30 one-legged alternating squats and 30 one-armed dumbbell snatches. The second team event also mimicked the individual workout except one man on the team completed 21, 15 and then 9 reps of deadlifts and box jumps, then a woman followed suit.

At the end of the day, the overall standings were as follows:

Men

1. Jason Khalipa (7 points)
2. Neal Maddox (22 points)
3. Garret Fisher (22 points)

Women

1. Alessandra Pichelli (13 points)
2. Annie Sakamoto (26 points)
3. Ashley Carriveau (29 points)

Teams

1. CrossFit 808 (9 points)
2. Rocklin CrossFit (19 points)
3. Diablo CrossFit Anejo (20 points)
